

Creating a onsemi account

Step 1: Click on the onsemi account icon in the menubar

Step 2: Click on the Register Now

The screenshot shows the onsemi website header with navigation links: Products, Solutions, Design, Support, Company, and Careers. A search bar is present with the text "Search the Site & Cross Reference". The user language is set to EN. A dark modal window is open, titled "Supercharge your onsemi experience by creating an onsemi account". It lists several benefits: "Order product samples & evaluation boards", "Save custom parametric search filters", "Join the conversation on Community Forums", "Utilize Strata Developer Studio & other developer tools", "Save/Email Interactive Block Diagram worksheets", "Watch Exclusive Webinars", and "View browsing history & favorites using My History". Below the modal is a white login form with fields for "Login ID" and "Password", a "Remember Me" checkbox, a "Forgot Password?" link, and an orange "Login" button. A blue arrow points to a "Register Now" link located below the login button. The main content area features a "Partner Spotlight" for "Intelligent Driverless" technology, with a "Learn More" button. A footer banner reads "Intelligent Technology. Better Future." with a "Learn More About What We Do" button. The bottom navigation bar includes "Automotive Solutions" and "Expand All Solutions".

Step 2: Fill out all required fields and click “Register”

Step 5: Login to your onsemi account from the account icon in the menubar

The screenshot shows the onsemi website header with navigation links: Products, Solutions, Design, Support, Company, and Careers. A search bar is present with the text "Search the Site & Cross Reference". On the right, there are icons for a user profile, a shopping cart, and the language "EN".

A dark overlay in the center-left contains the text "Supercharge your onsemi experience by creating an onsemi account" and lists several benefits:

- Order product samples & evaluation boards
- Save/Email Interactive Block Diagram worksheets
- Save custom parametric search filters
- Watch Exclusive Webinars
- Join the conversation on Community Forums
- View browsing history & favorites using My History
- Utilize Strata Developer Studio & other developer tools
- And Much More...

To the right of the overlay is a "Login" form with the following elements:

- A "Login" header with a user icon.
- A text input field for the username.
- A password input field with a toggle for visibility.
- Checkboxes for "Remember Me" and a link for "Forgot Password?".
- An orange "Login" button.
- A link for "Do not have an account? Register Now".

Below the overlay and form, a dark banner contains the text "Welcome to onsemi", "Featured New Product", "Cloud Power", and "Partner Spotlight".

At the bottom of the page, there is a large heading "Intelligent Technology. Better Future." and a button "Learn More About What We Do".

Step 6: You are now logged into you onsemi account

The screenshot shows the onsemi website with a user logged into their account. The top navigation bar includes the onsemi logo, menu items for Products, Solutions, Design, Support, Company, and Careers, a search bar, and a user profile icon labeled 'QM'. A blue arrow points from the title 'Step 6: You are now logged into you onsemi account' to the 'QM' profile icon. Below the navigation bar, there is a main content area with a 'Welcome' message and a 'Learn More' button. To the right, a user account dashboard is visible, featuring a 'QM' profile icon, a 'Manage My Account' button, and several service tiles: 'Customer Info Network', 'My Activity', 'My Orders', and 'Services'. At the bottom of the dashboard, there are 'Support' and 'Log Out' buttons. The footer of the page includes the text 'Intelligent Technology. Better Future.' and a 'Like' button.
